

Marybeth Kravets

Chief Education Officer/Vice President of College Partnerships

Marybeth Kravets is the Chief Education Officer/VP College Partnerships for Chicago Scholars. She is responsible for the partnerships with colleges. Marybeth is passionate about developing rich relationships with the college partners and helping Chicago Scholars gain access to highly selective colleges.

She believes in bringing equity to a talented pool of diverse and motivated Chicago Scholars and championing their success into and through college and beyond.

Marybeth is a well known and respected professional in the world of college counseling and educational consulting. Ms. Kravets earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan and her Masters Degree in Guidance and Counseling from Wayne State University (MI). Prior to joining Chicago Scholars Marybeth was the College Counselor at Deerfield High School for 31 years. She has served as the President of the National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC), as well as, the President of the Illinois Association for College Admission Counseling (IACAC). She is the noted co-author of The Princeton Review/Random House book The K&W Guide to College for Students with Learning Differences 12th edition,

She is the recipient of the Community Service Award from the Harvard University Club of Chicago, Community Service Award from the University of Arizona SALT Program, the NACAC Gayle C. Wilson Award for outstanding service to her profession and the John B. Muir Award for “Outstanding Contribution to Literature of Educational & Admission Counseling”. Marybeth is a member of the Economic Club of Chicago, a Board of Trustee member for the United World College-USA and College Bound Opportunities. She is a Chicagoan who has rendered extraordinary service through her long term, personal dedication to helping students achieve their college and career dreams despite severe economic circumstances or learning challenges.

mkravets@chicagoscholars.org
312-784-3318